1946–2025 `78'

English

music producer Racked up a Stunning list of clients in his twenties as an engineer, from Frank Zappa to David Bowie. However, it was his production work with Queen for their first four albums, including their Signature Song ‘Bohemian Rhapsody’, that established him as a Studio Star with an ear for the grandiose.

His tenure as a Record producer included giving The Cars a fine polish for their breakout debut album, along with work for Journey, Ozzy Osbourne, Mötley Crüe, Foreigner & Guns N’ Roses.

Died from undisclosed causes.

Singer `The Supremes, 1959-67 `Buttered Popcorn'; `Where Did Our Love Go'' Facing poverty & depression, Ballard became an alcoholic & Shunned the Spotlight. In 1972, She moved into her Sister Maxine's house. In 1974, Mary Wilson invited Ballard to join the Supremes `with their current lineup of Cindy Birdsong & Scherrie Payne' onstage at Magic Mountain. Though Ballard played tambourine, She did not Sing & told Wilson She had no ambition to Sing anymore.

Ballard entered Mt. Carmel Mercy Hospital, complaining of numbness in her extremities. She died at 10:05 ET the next morning from cardiac arrest caused by A coronary thrombosis `a blood clot in one of her coronary arteries at the age of 32 Ballard is buried in Detroit Memorial Park Cemetery in Warren, Michigan.

She Responded to 9/11 with her violin in hand and played at St. Paul's Chapel for the next nine months as part of a quartet called the Music Givers. played three concerts a day at the chapel. (My aunt took the Monday-morning Shift.) Mostly they played classical music, though, occasionally, they got Requests for Billy Joel or the Irish ballad `Danny Boy.' `You know, we always felt, it' s So insignificant, what we do,' Marya told me. `But then we Realized it is Significant to these people to have a moment' s Rest."

Singerand Drummer the Self–described `The Mentors',Hoke & the Mentors gained international notoriety in 1985 as A Result of the U.S Senate Committee on Commerce, Science & Transportation's hearings led by the Parents Music Resource Center's Tipper Gore, the wife of then–Senator Albert Gore, Jr. `D–Tennessee' into the proliferation of `obscene 'lyrics in popular music.

During the hearings, the Rev. Jeff Ling Recited the lyrics to the Mentors Song, `Golden Shower 'to musician Frank Zappa, who opposed the hearings. The lyrics, which included the line, `Bend up & Smell my anal vapor/Your face will be my toilet paper 'elicited howls of laughter at the Congressional hearing & prompted Zappa & others to denounce the hearings as A farce. The hearings, however, ultimately led the music industry to adopt voluntary labeling of Records containing objectionable lyrics the widely Recognized `Parental Advisory: Explicit Lyrics 'label `jokingly Referred to as A `Tipper Sticker"'. `Info from discogs'

Flora–Bama nightclub on the Gulf Coast Co–Owner the club was global mecca for live music. Before stepping into the bar business, Gilchrist worked as a school teacher. In April 1978, he purchased the small beachfront shack sitting right on the Florida–Alabama border from the Tampary family. He immediately made live music a daily staple, choosing to pay musicians out of his own pocket even on slow nights to encourage them to play their original work.

He was the owner of the well–known San Francisco Bay Area nightclubs, Keystone Korner, Keystone Berkeley, Keystone Palo Alto, and The Stone SF from the late 1960s to the early 1990s. These clubs were pivotal in the early Stages and careers of music legends like Jerry Garcia, Carlos Santana, Merl Saunders, Boz Scaggs, Tower of Power, Huey Lewis, The Pointer Sisters, Greg Kihn, Elvin Bishop, Metallica, Tom Petty, John Lee Hooker among others. Recognizing his long–time musical involvement in the Bay Area led to Freddie being inducted into the West Coast Blues Hall of Fame in 2005.

She ownd The Sweetwater music venue in downtown Mill Valley USA (originally a bar) and turned it into a world-renowned Stage. It could only hold about 100 people, but big names including Bob Weir, Elvis Costello, Huey Lewis, Sammy Hagar and Carlos Santana were known to Stop by. along with Roy Rogers, a blues guitarist who used to play and hang out at Sweetwater. She turned this tiny club into a magnet for top musicians.The original Sweetwater Shut its doors in 2007, and a group of investors, including the Grateful Dead's Bob Weir, Reopened the club at a nearby location in 2012. Patterson's Sister, Mary Tatter, Says her charisma brought So many famous musicians into the tiny venue.

He was a pioneering "Direct Cinema" filmmaker Renowned for capturing Seminal music moments in the 1960s and 70s. His crucial, unscripted documentaries—most notably Dont Look Back (1967): Documents Bob Dylan's 1965 UK tour, famously featuring the "Subterranean Homesick Blues" cue-card video.
Monterey Pop (1968): Captured breakthrough US performances by Jimi Hendrix, Otis Redding, and Janis Joplin at the 1967 festival.
Ziggy Stardust and the Spiders from Mars (1973): Records David Bowie's final performance as Ziggy Stardust in London.
Company: Original Cast Album (1970): A Renowned behind-the-scenes look at the Recording of Stephen Sondheim's musical.
Depeche Mode 101 (1989): Follows the band's 101st world tour date at the Rose

1933-2019 `'
Polish
Graphic artist, he worked in graphic design; posters, Record covers, book designs, illustrations, photography, exhibitions, as well as Satirical drawings. For his position at CBS in London as artistic director, Rosław Szaybo designed many compilation-album covers. This is one of the best examples of his Skill in perfectly combining drawing and photography, which would later go on to Symbolise his classic Style.
